Hi Joel -

Thank you for the information and update.

To address your concerns/statements:

- 1. Yes, please put the filters on a bi-annual change. I will get another set ordered. From the last order/invoice are there any changes? If not, I will place the same order.
- 2. Please go ahead and replace. The cost is within my allowance to approve. Thank you!
- 3. What would the cost be to complete this project? Before going to the state for approval, we need to have an estimated cost. Thank you.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

6R maintenance needs

Hey Candi!

I just wanted to run a couple things by you and keep you in the loop on some issues... We have a couple of different problems going on with the 6R treatment plant:

- 1. The late December/early January storms caused significant turbidity in the well and forced us to take it out of service completely for about a month. Once we were able to get the regulatory sampling back to good, Steve noticed that the differential pressure on the pre filters had substantially increased. He removed the bag filter and all pre-filters and did a cleaning which brought the pressure back down into the normal range, however, it has climbed over the last 2 weeks quickly and is back to the same point. I think because we have been operating 6R more frequently, because those storms had a major impact on the watershed/aquifer, and because of the overall well sustainability between 2,3R, and 6R... We should likely start at least planning to change out those pre-filters on an annual basis instead of bi-annual. As part of our last 2 years SOP plan it is running a lot more than it used to, which in turn is taking a lot of the load off of 2 and 3R. We will likely be changing the pre-filters in the next week or two and will want to order another set of those along with the bag filters.
- 2. As part of the original plant design there is a large inline steel mixing tank just down stream of the giardia filters and chlorine injection. This tank is corroding away and creating turbidity issues on the operators finish water grab samples. Below, you'll see a link to what I would recommend we replace that old steel tank with. I'm still vetting out the spec's to make sure it's good with the system psi/flows but I think it would be a lot better. Total material cost would likely be in the $300-400 range and its probably about ½ day labor to remove the old and install the new.

https://www.cleanwaterstore.com/in-line-mixers/static-inline-mixer-2-pvc-15-to-88-gpm.html?device=c&keyword=&campaign=372560710&adgroup=pla-4584757336136159&ad_id=81157787774801&AdGroup=M8000560%20%7C%20Static%20Inline%20Mixer%202%22%20PVC%3A%2015%20to%2088%20GPM%20%7C%20%24169.95&AdGroupId=1298523542033187&AdId=81157787774801&Campaign=LP%20-%20Shop%20-%20Mixers&CampaignId=372560710&Network=o&_vsrefdom=wordstream&identifiers=pla-4584757336136159&keyword=&keyword_session_id=vt-adwords|kt~|mt~e|ta~&msclkid=0d0a6c6f5b3f1e7ba6b40f991e1a2cf8&utm_source=bing&utm_medium=cpc&utm_campaign=LP%20-%20Shop%20-%20Mixers&utm_term=4584757336136159&utm_content=M8000560%20%7C%20Static%20Inline%20Mixer%202%22%20PVC%3A%2015%20to%2088%20GPM%20%7C%20%24169.95

3. If we can get all of the above approved and completed, the last thing I'd like to look into is possibly relocating the chlorine injection line to be upstream of all the filtration equipment instead of down stream of it. This would help with filter life and disinfection efficiency, as well as provide a better finish water quality. That is the way the town of Volcano has their Rosedale chlorination setup and it seems to work very well. The one thing is this will require the states "blessing" so if we want to try it we'll need to run it all by Tahir first.

I think that's everything, just let me know Candi, have a great weekend!
